Flickr Commons
The key goals of The Commons on Flickr are to firstly show you hidden treasures in the world’s public photography archives, and secondly to show how your input and knowledge can help make these collections even richer.

You're invited to help describe the photographs you discover in The Commons on Flickr, either by adding tags or leaving comments.

Welcome to UNM flickr
The goal is to take advantage of the preexisting community of flickr. Anyone can submit photos to the UNM flickr pool.

How to participate
You can share your unique view of UNM by joining the UNM flickr group photo pool on flickr:
1. Create a flickr account
2. Join the UNM flickr group
3. Start sharing your great pics! Once your photos are in the UNM flickr pool they will magically begin appearing here :)

Some guidelines
Photos must be of UNM campus, UNM events, or UNM life. All images are moderated to ensure high quality.

By adding your photos to the pool, you authorize The University of New Mexico to permit the use and display of said photographs on this UNM flickr site and any UNM flickr related projects.

Notice! All images are copyright of their respective photographer. The use of images contained within this site and other UNM flickr projects is not permitted without the express permission of the photographer.
